Casa Atelier

AW26 COLLECTION

Casa Atelier

This is the Casa Atelier.
This is where we like to spend most of our time.
Sometimes, before going in, we like to peek
through the window, just to see what's inside.
There are drawers, full of things.
Threads, fabrics and buttons.
Some small, some bigger.
We like to open everything, touch and mix things up, spread them on the table and listen to the noise when they fall.
There are also big books with strange drawings and worn-out pages.
Oh, and papers that look like magical maps.
We don't always understand everything,
but we like to pretend that we do.
Sometimes we pretend we're working.
We line up fabrics, choose buttons and mix colours
we never thought would go together.
We invent clothes that only exist in our heads.
And everyone is free to do things their own way.
Here, no one stands still.
Hands are always busy and creativity
is always at work.
The tables are never the same, and the drawers
never hold the same things.
In the Casa Atelier, something is always happening.
And there are always new things to discover.
